

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Submitted

Members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church prepare the Thrivent Builds home for soffitt installation on Aug. 2. The Habitat for Humanity home is being built in partnership with the Trish Schlinger family, Thrivent Financial and local Lutheran churches. With such assistance, Steele County Habitat for Humanity will complete three homes this fall.

Submitted
Homeowner partner, Trish Schlinger (center) and members of St. John Lutheran and other volunteers prepare interior stud walls for the Thrivent Financial Thrivent Builds sponsored home at 505 Mosher Avenue. Thrivent Financial has committed over $120 million in grants to Habitat affiliates nationwide to help build affordable homes for those in need. For more information on how you can help or qualify for a Habitat home, call 446-0112.