The Gulf Coast still needs your help!

Help families rebuild their lives through a Thrivent Builds Worldwide special event.

After hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the situation along the Gulf Coast remains grave. Thousands of displaced families are still living in temporary housing. With your help, we can bring more families home. Here's how.

Thrivent Builds Worldwide Gulf Coast Experience

Thrivent Builds Worldwide (www.thriventbuilds.com) brings Thrivent Financial for Lutherans members, and other Lutherans and volunteers, together to build homes with families in need of decent, affordable housing. Your congregation's help is needed to lead or participate in this life-changing experience.

What: One-week special event, volunteer work trips to Biloxi, Mississippi. You'll work with Habitat for Humanity of the Mississippi Gulf Coast to help a partner family build their home.

When: 10 weeks available from mid-September through mid-December 2007.

Cost: Ground transportation, meals and lodging will be provided during your volunteer week. You will need to make your own travel arrangements and pay a small fee. Thrivent Financial Members – A nominal $25 registration fee is required. Nonmembers – A $190 registration fee is required.

How: Visit www.thriventbuilds.com/gulf for details and registration information. Or contact Lindsay Freise, Volunteer Manager at 228-314-0011, ext. 311 or via e-mail: tbw@hfhmgc.org.
